/ PROFILE

As a screenwriter with a deep understanding of dog training, I bring a unique perspective to the art of storytelling, allowing me to craft engaging characters and plots that resonate with audiences by drawing on the subtle nuances of animal behavior and psychology while also understanding the primal instincts that drive human behavior.

/ EXPERIENCE

Protection Dog Trainer | Trikos International 2019 - Present

- Responsible for the care and safety of dogs with the capability to protect families and individuals
- Trusted to provide delivery of said dogs to their new homes.
- Develop unique solutions for clients with particular needs. Including requested tasks ranging from "training a dog to prevent an autistic child from entering bodies of water" to "training a dog to fetch beer from the fridge."
- Follow instructions from my superior as well as make educated executive decisions.
- Receive critiques on my work and improve in areas that need attention.

Canine Trainer | Self-employed 2013 - 2019

- Develops individualized programs for owners.
- Adapted education delivery to effectively communicate the importance to individuals.
- Offered honest and actionable feedback to address clients' behavior and actions.
- Overcame obstacles with tailored approaches for dogs and humans to achieve goals.
